Dear Partners,

CASA for Douglas County is hosting its Inaugural CASA Classic golf tournament in August and would like to invite you to make a difference in a child's life by hosting a foursome and/or sponsoring the event. For 23 years, CASA Volunteers have provided an individualized voice and advocated for interventions and services that improve outcomes of well-being, safety, and permanency for our children. CASA Volunteers ensure that children are placed in appropriate, safe, and nurturing environments to expedite permanency, so they are not lingering in foster care unnecessarily. Each CASA volunteer monitors a single case at a time and remains on for the life of the case until a permanent home is found. These volunteers are not experts in child welfare, but they are experts in care, compassion, and empathy. They bring hope to children trapped in a system that is overwhelmed and under-resourced.

For example, Tyler Tipton is appointed to Jacob, a young man struggling to gain permanency. Tyler consistently meets with Jacob and the two have formed a strong bond. When COVID hit, Tyler found a safe way for the two to continue meeting and started taking Jacob fishing. This is a great time for the two to talk but it is also a time for Jacob to relax and feel like a normal teen. Sometimes, kids just need to feel normal and wanted. Tyler is entering the training academy to become a sheriff, but still finds time to connect and ensure Jacob's needs are met and their relationship remains close.

Can we count on you to help a child in need? There are over 1,600 children in foster care in Douglas County alone. With your help, CASA will be able to train an additional CASA Volunteer, pay for a child to play football, provide support for educational goals, etc.

If your golf game is anything like mine, you will not be winning any green jackets, but you will become a champion in the eyes of some very deserving children.

Join CASA for Douglas County as we take a swing at providing a CASA Volunteer for every child in foster care who needs one.

Thank you in advance,

Kimberly Thomas
